

GALA MUSICAL TEA PARTY

NUNSMERE HALL HOTEL

Sunday 18 July 2010 at 3.30 p.m.

We plan a traditional English tea party of a high standard, with an equally impeccable quality of music. There will be sandwiches, scones and pastries, all made in Nunsmere's kitchens with the benefit of a specialist pastry chef. Sourcing is as local as possible and mostly from Cheshire. We are delighted that Helen Blake (accompanied by David Bradford) has agreed to sing a wide range of well loved songs. The menu is as follows:

- Open sandwiches: hot smoked salmon with natural yogurt and free range egg with rapeseed mayonnaise
- Finger sandwiches: smoked ham with cucumber and traditional Cheshire cheese with apple chutney
- Nunsmere Hall scones, clotted cream and homemade strawberry jam
- Pastries and cakes from the Nunsmere kitchen: fruit puff pastry, strawberry meringue with Chantilly cream, fruit cake and banana cake

To book: please send a cheque, made out to "Taste Real Food Cheshire" to Geoffrey Carr at 23 Summerville Gardens, Grappenhall, Warrington, Cheshire WA4 2EG. Queries to Geoffrey on 07802 392 537 or via geoffreycarr1@aol.com

Nunsmere Hall, Oakmere, Cheshire is on the A49, north of Tarporley and south of the A556.
Postcode: CW8 2ES Members £22.50 Non-members: £27.50